

GCCF awarded $85,963 during its Spring 2023 grant cycle.

We thank all applicants for their time in applying.

- Ashley Community Schools received $496.50 for the Detroit Institute of Arts Field Trip;
- Child Advocacy received $3,350 to combat the use of vape/electronic cigarettes at Breckenridge High School by installing vape detectors;
- St. Louis Area Fire Department received $15,000 to help aid in funding the Heavy Rescue Replacement project, ensuring the truck has adequate safety features for both responders and residents;
- Alma Public Schools received $2,652 for students to visit the Detroit Institute of Arts and tour downtown Detroit;
- Alma Public Schools received $3,800 for students to visit the Henry Ford Museum, Detroit Opera House, and perform the National Anthem for a Detroit Tigers Game;
- Gratiot County Central Dispatch received $7,350 to replace the Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) computers;
- St. Louis Public Schools received $3,000 to provide world-class music instruction and performance opportunities to students and residents of Gratiot County with the Festival of Steel;
- Gratiot County Animal Shelter received $6,000 for the Target TNR project;
- Gratiot-Isabella RESD received $5,000 to increase the number of children in Gratiot County enrolled in the Dolly Parton Imagination Library;
- Rise Advocacy, Inc., received $8,000 to enhance and protect the safety and privacy of domestic violence survivors in Gratiot County;
- Gratiot County Fair for Youth received $20,465 to aid in updating the restroom facilities;
- Gratiot County Sheriff's Office received $3,000 to secure jail keys more appropriately;
- Alma Highland Festival received $6,250 to aid in purchasing products that allow for better accessibility for all Festival visitors; and
- Breckenridge Community Schools received $1,600 to purchase a new laminator for the Library Media Center.

###